The successful candidate will work collaboratively with Maple Street faculty, staff, and families to provide care for children after school hours; have knowledge and understanding of early childhood development; and provide an atmosphere in which children feel safe, engaged, supported, and challenged.

Key Responsibilities

- Affinity and enthusiasm for working with young children
- Demonstrated enthusiasm, creativity, optimism, resourcefulness, and the ability to manage classroom behavior
- Excellent communication skills with parents and children
- Willingness to learn and improve professionally
- Sound judgment and emotional maturity
- Ability to collaborate and work with a team

Professional and Personal Qualifications

- Highly developed organizational skills
- Integrity, ethical conduct, and professional discretion with confidential matters
- Personal traits appropriate for nurturing the growth of children - must be energetic, optimistic, flexible, patient, and have an engaging sense of humor.

Application Process:

Candidates will submit the following to dskoglund@maplestreetschool.com:

- A current resume
- A cover letter expressing interest in the position
- A list of at least three professional references that can be contacted at the appropriate time
